Mission:

Interval House is dedicated to providing services to prevent and break the cycle of family and intimate partner abuse. We strive to reach all persons at risk and bring about social change.
Dear Friends,

For more than 36 years, interval house has been providing services to victims of domestic violence in 24 towns and communities. Life savings services such as emergency shelter, support groups, safety planning, crisis counseling. As I look back it is with pride and astonishment that we were able to accomplish so much during this reporting period 2011-2012 and 2012-2013.

In addition to continuing our core programs, this time period saw us entering into an exciting partnership with law enforcement through the Lethality Assessment Process, and we are a pilot site for Safe Connections, a program to help victims when their abuser is incarcerated or soon to be released. We have been able to do much needed, extensive facility renovations, have a new roof, paved parking lot (with lines) and have expanded our physical office work space to include two new offices. All this because of generous grant funding we received. Our partnerships within the community thrive. Our men’s initiative continues to grow and we are entering into the world of social media in our messaging efforts to reach all segments of the population we serve, including the very important teen dating population.

As you look through these pages you will see thousands of women and children have been helped by our programs and I hope you will share in my pride. Our tireless staff, dedicated Board of Directors, volunteers, and generous supportive community, have all been working together to make a difference in the lives of our neighbors, friends, coworkers.

As you read through these pages, please think about what your contribution has meant to Interval House and be proud of your involvement. You are helping us save lives, give a voice and change the future.

Cecile Enrico
Executive Director
Interval House is a 501(c) (3) tax qualified organization as defined by the Internal Revenue Service.
Program Highlights...

Hotline & Shelter: Iris Ruiz, Assistant Director
- Interval House’s launched the Lethality Assessment Program (LAP), another collaboration with the Manchester Police Dept. The goal of collaborations like this is to engage victims of domestic violence to lower the murders in domestic violence cases in Connecticut.
- Grants from organizations like the Hartford Foundation for Public Giving allowed us to do major improvements such as a new roof, chimney, bricks repair and power washing. Also a new front walk and siding for the facility and the garage.
- Grants from Hoffman, Mortensen and Rotary International helped complete a new parking lot, fencing, gate and new work areas in our basement. Architect Sudhaker Nagardeolekar, volunteered to oversee the completion of these projects.
- For four years now, the XL Group chose Interval House for their Day of Giving in May. Fifteen XL employees spent the day at the shelter doing repairs, painting and cleaning. They also repaired our children’s playscape, with the assistance of Robert Gery, a longtime volunteer and patron.

Interval House East/West & Volunteer Program: Donna Andrini, Program Coordinator
- Thanks to the generosity of the community east of the River, 25 families, with 63 children, got Christmas gifts last year.
- In the period of this report, the Program Coordinator advocated 1,041 times for domestic violence victims in the Interval House East community which included the Rockville Civil Court for restraining orders, divorce and custody hearings, and in the Manchester Criminal Court.
- Interval House East also received 1,019 Hotline calls during this reporting period.
- Interval House West has successfully advocated for several victims to obtain U-Visa’s through the Violence Against Women Act.
- Interval House West provided 314 in-person counseling units and 253 phone counseling units.

Volunteer Program
- In the last two years, Interval House has certified 34 direct-service volunteers clocking more than 3,200 hours of service.
- From helping in the Children’s Program, facilitating support groups, speaking at events and staffing tables at service fairs, volunteers remain a vital part of Interval House’s services.

Advocacy Program: Jennifer Lopez, Director
- In the last two years, the Hartford Police Domestic Violence Unit has been a great addition to the department. The collaboration between Jennifer, the court advocates and the Unit has been enhanced greatly due to the daily interactions to assist victims.
- Interval House, with the full participation from its partners, is in the development process of the Domestic Violence High Risk Team. This team works collaboratively to identify the most dangerous domestic violence cases in the community and offer a coordinated effort for domestic violence response and better options and support for victims.
- We have also now collaborate with the law firm: Robinson & Cole. We have R&C attorneys available at the shelter two days a month for 2-4 hours to assist clients with restraining order process all pro-bono.

Children’s Program: Lydia Lopez, Director
- The children were able to attend basketball clinics at CCSU hosted by Central Connecticut’s Blue Devil’s Men’s basketball Team.
- Admission tickets for the children were donated which included trips and outings to Disney on Ice, Forest Park Zoo, Lake Compounce Theme Park, and Michael Jackson, The Immortal World Tour.
- In the past two fiscal years, the children activities increased by 239% due to the age group (0-5) of the children. The young children did more hands on and interactive activities which accounts for this increase.

Domestic Violence Outreach Team: Penni Micca, Program Coordinator
- The Manchester Domestic Violence Outreach Team (DVOT) partners an Interval House Advocate with a Manchester Police Officer.
- Established in 1997, this is the longest running partnership of its kind in the state, and is a highly specialized team that handles cases of domestic violence, stalking and non-stranger sexual assault.
- Services are offered to anyone who lives, works or studies in Manchester and to victims where the domestic abuse occurred in Manchester.

Community Outreach & Education: David Rivera, Community Relations Coordinator
- Outreach and education continue to be an invaluable part of the agency’s mission to help break the cycle of domestic and for the past two years we have been increasing our outreach efforts to high schools and colleges. In fact, we have reached nearly 900 high schools seniors in Newington alone since 2011. This is key for our awareness messages with regard to dating violence.
- Efforts to reach teens has included special Teen Dating Violence presentations in schools and organizations such as the Boys & Girls Club, Camp Courant and Manchester High allowing Interval House to reaching thousands of elementary, middle and high school students each year.
- Interval House has grown into a multi-media faceted organization utilizing Facebook, Twitter and YouTube. This has resulted in a notable increase in the number of web hits and social media followers.
DEVELOPMENT: Rosemary Padin, Director

Saving lives, giving a voice, changing the future...that’s what we are about. Transforming Lives sessions are held monthly to invited guests and have been attended by 139 to date. These small groups are given a look at our work through sights and sounds, and truly experience our mission.

We continue to grow our awareness efforts with marked increases in our public relations and media. Our entrance into the world of social media through Facebook, Twitter and the use of You Tube is an exciting part of our continuing efforts to reach younger audiences with our message of awareness about dating relationships. We also debuted a new video, Saving Lives, Giving a Voice, Changing the Future which follows the experiences of three women who were helped by Interval House and their children.

Fund Raising events continue to grow and our spring gala, Step Up and Step Out, a heart and soul benefit for Interval House, continues to enjoy the support of a generous community. During this period, we held our second Breakfast with Champions where Coach Howard Dickenman was honored for his dedication and commitment to us and to breaking the cycle of domestic violence. We continue in our efforts to grow our third party, community events. During this report period, we launched our Giving Society where multiyear pledges are encouraged.

We continued to be grateful to all those who support us throughout the years and are proud to acknowledge and thank you in these pages of our Annual Report.

MEN MAKE A DIFFERENCE, MEN AGAINST DOMESTIC VIOLENCE™

- 2012 and 2013 marked an increase in our core group of men in this initiative by 22%.

- Senator Richard Blumenthal continues to co-chair and is present at all the events. In addition to 4 regular meetings where we discuss our mission and ways these men can contribute, they have attended galas, events, community presentations, and played basketball in a celebrity half-time game at CCSU.

- Many of the group attended our speakers training workshop. The visibility is priceless, gifts in-kind numerous and these men are responsible for our raising more than $157,430 during this report period.
