TO A SURVIVOR OF
DOMESTIC VIOLENCE
THIS HOLIDAY SEASON

GIFT CARDS GIVE SURVIVORS A choice!

Gift cards are one of the most powerful things you can give a survivor of domestic violence, who may not have had control over their own choices and spending until now. With a gift card, a survivor gets to select the gifts they will give their kids or prepare a holiday meal that is meaningful and traditional for their family. Gift cards are also the most discreet and flexible way for us to help clients who are actively in transition from a violent home.

INTERVAL HOUSE IS SEEKING THE FOLLOWING IN $10, $25, AND $50 INCREMENTS FOR OUR CLIENTS:

VISA gift cards are the most helpful option, as they can be used at any retailer.

Gift Cards to stores like Walmart & Target allow one-stop shopping for food, clothing, toys and personal items!

Stop & Shop or ShopRite gift cards offer daily nourishment or the fixings for a culturally-appropriate holiday meal.

Walgreens and CVS gift cards provide quick essentials in every neighborhood.
